Council at Large	Kathleen M. Goedl

A motion to excuse Mr. Miller was made by Mrs. Zech with a second by Mr. Mestemaker. The motion carried 6-0 by voice vote. The minutes of the January 18, 2000 meeting were approved. Mr. Keller called for reports from Council and read a list of ordinances and resolutions to be presented.

Recognition of the Public

Dr. Jean Siebenaler of Green Township addressed Council regarding Rescue Health Care Day to be held from 11:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. on April 1, 2000.

Mr. Keller announced some conflicting dates for council meetings; that being March 7, July 4 and November 7, 2000. There will be no council meeting on those dates.

Safety Service Director's Report

Mr. Neal read his report into the record. He complimented the Maintenance Department for taking care of clearing the streets during the recent snowstorms. The city's ordinance regarding snow removal in both the business and the residential district is enforceable. There was general discussion. Christmas trees will be chipped and shredded over at the park as soon as the snow melts. The Census workers will be using the council conference room from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. on both March 3rd and 10th. Mr. Neal also read a report submitted by Police Chief Voss into the record. There were some grant moneys received by the department that was turned over to the Auditor's Office. The full-time Officers are now on permanent shifts. The Safe & Sober Campaign will be underway from February 13th through the 18th. The department's year-end report is complete and on file in the Chief's office.

Mayor's Report

Mayor Laumann spoke on the retirement of two city employees: Ken Taylor of the Maintenance Department and Sgt. Tom Baldock of the Police Department. Mr. Neal is accepting applications to fill the vacancy in the Maintenance Department. A Civil Service promotional exam is scheduled for March 4th to fill the sergeant's position. Wage negotiations for the departments are under way with the various bargaining units. The Mayor's Court checking account will be moved from Provident Bank to Fifth-Third Bank in order to avoid service charges. A resolution has been drafted in order to accomplish this. A new part-time police officer, Christina Mock, has been sworn in. There have been discussions with the people at Provident Bank regarding their intentions with the Centennial Bank property. The Mayor thanked Time Warner Cable for their help in taking down and putting up the banners in the business district. The Mayor is in the process of updating the list of boards and commissions due to some vacancies and will have that list by the next council meeting. There was general discussion regarding the Centennial Bank property.

Law Director's Report

Mr. Waters will prepare a table of wage negotiation deadlines. He received a letter from Kevin Broderick's attorney claiming that he is still due about $2300.00 from the city. He disagrees with the claim and will aggressively defend the city. Mr. Waters has received a couple of request for opinion letters. He has also received a packet from Chuck Mitchell who is representing Lt. Siciliano over the back wage issue.
