A motion to excuse Mr. Dinkelacker and Mr. Braun was made by Mr. Sunderhaus, seconded by Mr. McGowan. The motion passed with a 5-0 vote. President McKinney stated that the renewal tax levies are resolution not ordinances. There will also not be a vote on the Safety-Service Director or the Streetscape plan. There are reports from the Finance and Utilities Committees. A motion to approve and file the minutes for December 1, 2009 made by Ms. Zech, seconded by Mr. Stautberg. The motion passed with a 5-0 voice vote.

Police Chief's Report

Chief Voss announced that the H1N1 vaccine will be available at Oak Hills High School on December 21, 2009 from 4-9pm. Those interested can contact the fire chief for more information.

The Police Chief spoke briefly about the large amount of drug arrests in Cheviot. Chief Voss expressed his concern for the large amount of issues in the bar district. He explained that the amount of assaults and violence have increased dramatically. Chief Voss spoke about issues with specific bars and read off a long list of violations that have been addressed with bar patrons. The Chief feels that the City should object to the renewal of some liquor licenses until bars start to control their crowds, serve responsibly and hire private security. Chief Voss also shared a story in which one of the bar owners was visibly intoxicated and involved in a confrontation with the police.

Officer Steve Knapp showed a video of a large crowd outside a bar on Harrison Avenue, the night before Thanksgiving. Much discussion ensued concerning the video between members of council and the administration. President McKinney referred the Chief's concerns to committee. The Chief's concerns will be put into the Internal Affairs committee.

Public Recognition on Agenda Items

In the interest of time, President McKinney recognized Matt Huseman, owner of Maury's Tiny Cove. Mr. Huseman addressed his concern for the removal of the light at Harrison and Lovell. Mr. Huseman questioned council on various issues and asked who to contact at ODOT and the city's engineering firm, with further concerns. Mr. Huseman showed a petition, signed by over 600 concerned citizens and patrons of Maury's, about the removal of the light. There was much discussion on the topic and President McKinney then referred Mr. Huseman's concerns to the Mayor.

Reports of Standing Committees

Mr. Stautberg read a report of the Public Utilities Committee from December 8, 2009 into the record. A motion to receive and file was made by Mr. Stautberg, seconded by Mr. McGowan. The motion passed with a 5-0 voice vote.
